

Marvin M. Williams Jr.

Marvin M. Williams Jr. 20, of Florahome, died Aug. 8, 2010, from injuries sustained from an automobile accident.

He is survived by his mother, Mary L. Reed of Florahome; father, Marvin J. Williams and stepmother, Joanne of Gainesville; five brothers, Clifford (Vera) Reed of Daytona Beach, Michael Reed of Florahome, Malik J., Marvin J. Jr., and Mozell J. Williams, all of Gainesville; two sisters, Leaner (Terrance) Haynes of Interlachen, and Stephanie (Kurt) January of Jacksonville; a stepbrother, Shiloh Duncan, Jacksonville; paternal grandmother, Adjnola Williams and great-grandmother Letha L. Guthrie, both of Florahome; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Viewing hours will be Friday at Pinkney-Smith Funeral Home, 21400 SE Hawthorne Road, Hawthorne, 2-8 p.m. and Saturday at the church 10-11 a.m. Homegoing Celebration Services for Mr. Williams will be held at 11 a.m. Saturday, Aug. 14, at Living Hope Family Worship Center, 1109 State Road 100, Florahome, host pastor is Pastor Dave, Rev. Arthur McGruder, is officiating. Burial will be in Abilene Cemetery, Putnam Hall. No viewing after the eulogy. The cortege will form at Marvin M. Williams Jr. home of Florahome at 10:30 a.m. Saturday.

Services entrusted to the care of Pinkney-Smith Funeral Home of Hawthorne (352) 481-2903.