

Para L. Williams

Para Lee Williams, 96, of Putnam Hall, died peacefully Sept. 12, 2014 at her home.

She was a member of Abilene Missionary Baptist Church and served faithfully as Pall Bearer Secretary, Building Fund Committee, Home Mission and as Mother of the Church.

She's survived by five sons, Alfred (Evelyn) Williams Sr., Putnam Hall, Herbert (Marilyn) Williams, Gainesville, Leon Williams, Wallace Williams and Ernest Williams, all of Putnam Hall, five daughters, Walter Mae (W.L.) Stokes, Putnam Hall, Ernestine Flowers, Speedville, Inez (Charles) White, Boston, Mass., Virginia (James) Strickland, Johnson, and Harriet (Asmer) Leonard, Putnam Hall; 31 grandchildren, 61 great-grandchildren, 21 great-great-grandchildren, and a host of other relatives.

Funeral services will be 2 p.m., Saturday, Sept. 20 at Trinity Baptist Church, 3716 SE State Road 21, Keystone Heights, the Rev. Frankie L. McClendon, presiding, and the Rev. James Pullings, eulogist. Burial will be in Abilene Cemetery. Viewing hours on Friday at Pinkney-Smith Funeral Home in Hawthorne from 5-8 p.m. and Saturday at the church from 1:30-2 p.m. No viewing after eulogy.

Services Entrusted to Pinkney-Smith Funeral Home, 21400 SE Hawthorne Road, Hawthorne; (352) 481-2903; www.pinkney-smithfuneralhome.com.

Palatka Daily News Sept. 19, 2014