

Mattie Bard

Mrs. Mattie Bard died Monday at her home in the Georgetown section, following an extended illness. The deceased was a woman of many excellent traits of character, and was held in loving esteem by a large circle of friends. She was forty-five years of age. The funeral was held Tuesday, the interment being in the family section in the cemetery there.

To the sorrowing relatives is extended the sincere sympathy of the entire community.

Times-Herald Obituary Friday, Oct 31 1919.