

Victor Lander "Vic" Felder

Victor "Vic" Lander Felder, 52, of Hastings entered the sunset of life on Wednesday, Jan. 18, 2012, at N.E. Florida Community Hospice Bailey Center, St. Augustine.

A native of Dover Del., "Vic" was a lifelong resident of Hastings. The son of Eddie George and Jessie Mae (Middlebrook) Felder, he was educated at Hastings High School. "Vic" was a farm laborer, an ordinary man who loved his family and friends. In his early years, he was a member of Gethsemane Missionary Baptist Church, Hastings.

He was preceded in eternal rest by his father, Eddie George "Gator" Felder; brothers, Eddie "Lucky" and Eric B. Felder Sr.; maternal grandparents, Bennett and Della Middlebrook; paternal grandparents, Eddie and Maybell Felder.

To cherish his memories: devoted mother, Jessie Mae Middlebrook, Hastings; caring sisters, Cornester Terry, Gainesville; Ministers Glenda "GiGi" (Hiawathia) Porter, Hastings; Goldia Felder and Paula (Dwayne) Shack, Jacksonville; Sherry Felder, Tampa; Alfreda ("J.R.") Evans, West Palm Beach; adoptive sister, Shelby Jack; brothers, Kenneth (Annie Ruth) Felder, Danny Felder; sister-in-law, Hildegard Felder, Hastings.

Visitation was held 5-8 p.m. Friday, Jan. 20, 2012, at The Chapel of Serenity. Graveside celebration: 9 a.m. Saturday (today) Jan. 21, 2011 Gethsemane Cemetery. Minister Hiawathia Porter, of Mt. Zion A.M.E. Church, Hastings, is the eulogist. Condolences: Felder family's guest book at www.flaggserenitychapel.com.

Arrangements entrusted to the care of Karl N. Flagg Serenity Memorial Chapel, 2400 Madison St., Palatka, Fla.

Published in St. Augustine Record from January 20 to January 21, 2012