

Catherine J. Hall

Catherine J. Hall, 48, of East Palatka, passed away unexpectedly Saturday, Dec. 12, 2009, at her residence.

She was a native of St. Augustine, but reared in Hastings by her grandmother, Mrs. Fannie Floyd. She was a 1980 graduate of Hastings High School in Hastings, a self-taught pianist, who then became the musician for Pompey's Temple Church of God in Christ and other churches in the community and surrounding areas. Cathy became known as the musician of Hastings. She was a member of Mt. Zion Missionary Baptist Church, Federal Point. She was employed with Dunkin Donuts of Palatka for many years and later was employed with Walmart in St. Augustine.

Preceding her in death were her mother, Rachel Mae Francis Goodwin; and brothers, Ronnie Hall and Elijah Hall.

Survivors are her grandmother, Fannie Floyd, East Palatka; her daughters, Alisha Bryson (Luis Ortega) and Mary Offord, all of Orlando, and Tiffany Hannah, East Palatka; son Walter V. Camps Jr., Orlando; sister, Vanessa Carswell, Bell Glade.; brothers, Larry (Linda) Hall Sr., and George (Anjanette) Roland all of Palatka, and Troy Richardson, Waycross, Ga.; Uncles, Amos Goodman and Isaac Goodman, both of Smokes, S.C.; three grandchildren and one great-grandchild; and other relatives and loving friends.

Visitation hours will be Friday, Dec. 18 (today) 5-9 p.m. and Saturday, Dec. 19, 9 a.m. till noon at the D.A. Boyd & Sons Funeral Home and at The Lord's Temple, Hastings, with the Rev. Johnnie Butts, pastor of Mt. Zion Missionary Baptist Church, Federal Point, officiating.

Interment will follow in the Gethsemane Cemetery, Hastings.

Funeral Services are under the direction of D.A. Boyd & Sons Funeral Home, Palatka.
