

Mose J. King, Jr.

Published Friday, March 31, 2006

Mose J. King, Jr., 65, of Hastings died on March 26, 2006, at Crestwood Nursing Center, Palatka. He was a life-long Hastings resident and a member of Gethsemane Missionary Baptist Church. He worked for Georgia-Pacific Industries for more than 35 years.

Services: Saturday, 11 a.m. at the Gethsemane Missionary Baptist Church. Visitation will be today at 5 p.m. to 7 p.m. at Gethsemane Missionary Church 7:30-9 p.m. at the D.A. Boyd and Sons Funeral Home, Palatka. Officiating: Charles Ferguson, pastor. Burial: Interment will follow in the Gethsemane Cemetery, Hastings.

Survivors: Wife, Helen King, Hastings; daughters: Pauline Deshommes, Winter Haven; Tabitha Griffin, Largo; sons: Mose J. King, III, Marvin King and Darian Williams, all of Hastings; Eric King, Tampa; sisters: Gracietta Jackson, Greenville, S.C.; Gwendolyn Green, Trenton, N.J.; Shelby Russell, Debbie Spaulding, both of Hastings; brother, Albert Spaulding, Jr., West Palm Beach; 17 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

In charge: D.A. Boyd and Sons Funeral Home, Palatka.