

Beck, LaNeeta Maria

LaNeeta Maria Beck, 77, resident of Hawthorne, died peacefully at her home Saturday, Nov. 7, 2016, following a long illness.

She was born May 31, 1939, in Quitman, La., to the late Tracie Pate and Juavynette Hess. She moved at a young age to Palatka, where she attended school and lived for many years until moving to Hawthorne in 1979. She was a homemaker who loved crafting, reading, working outside and going to yard sales. She was a member of Woodlawn Baptist Church, and was always active in vacation Bible school.

She is survived by her husband, Absalom Marvin "A.M." Beck Jr.; six daughters, Theta Yelverton, Dionne Yelverton, Debra (Steve) Johnson, Kimma (Clay) Jarrell, Tina Renea (Leland) Sturdivant and Jennifer Beck; two brothers, Nolan Pate and Tony Pate; two sisters, Diane Junslinger and Terry Caraway; 5 grandchildren; and 24 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be Friday, Nov. 11 at Woodlawn Baptist Church in Hawthorne, with Rev. L. D. O'Steen, church pastor, officiating, and Rev. Charles Litzell assisting. Interment will follow in Johnson Cemetery.

Williams-Thomas Hawthorne is handling arrangements.
