

Witkowski, Marion Beverly

Marion Beverly Witkowski, 68, of Johnson passed away Saturday, July 18, 2015 at Haven Hospice Roberts Care Center following an extended illness. She was a native of Rahway, NJ, had moved to Melrose from Miami in 1981 and had been a resident of Johnson for the past 14 years coming from Melrose. She was of the Catholic faith. She enjoyed staying active, vegetable and flower gardening, refurbishing furniture, taking care of her yard, sewing, knitting, and arts and crafts with her grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Edward Francis Witkowski; parents, Merion and Gladys Noennich Mathis; two sisters, Gerry Cursi and Laurie Crater and one brother, Sonny Mathis.

Surviving are two daughters and sons-in-law, Lisa and James Maloy and Ann and Ricky Phillips all of Johnson; two brothers, Harry Mathis of New Jersey and George Mathis of Palm Bay; one sister Lorraine Copeland of New Jersey; five grandchildren, James Maloy, Jr. and wife, Mellisa, Richard Phillips, Jr., Jannette Phillips, Heather Phillips and Nicholas Phillis and five great grandchildren.

Funeral services will be 10:00 a.m. Saturday, July 25, 2015 at Masters Funeral Home of Palatka with Rev. Deacon Frederic Brown officiating. Interment will follow in Johnson Cemetery. The family will receive friends one hour prior to the service.

In lieu of flowers memorial gifts may be sent www.gofundme.com/zn2js7c

Messages of encouragement and sympathy may be expressed on her on line guestbook at www.themastersfuneralhome.com

Masters Funeral Home of Palatka is in charge of arrangements.