

Antonio Calloway

Antonio Calloway, 49, of Orange Mills, died March 26, 2012 at his residence following a brief illness.

He attended the public school system in Putnam County. Tony often known for his quiet, reserved spirit and fashion. He worked as a farm laborer. He was born to the late Johnny Calloway and the late Bessie Calloway.

Survivors to include sons Isaiah Calloway, and Tony Calloway Jr., all of Palatka; daughter Tonnetta Calloway; sisters Dorothy Campbell, Shirley Williams, Mary Calloway and April Calloway, all of Palatka; brothers Johnny Calloway, New York, Clifford Calloway, Palatka, Artagus Calloway, Jacksonville, and Anthony Calloway.

Funeral services will be held Saturday, March 31 at 11 a.m. at Mt. Moriah Baptist Church, Pastor Gregory James, Rev. John William officiating. Viewing will be Friday 5-6 p.m. at Mt. Moriah Baptist Church. Burial will be in Pattersonville Memorial Cemetery.

Coleman's Mortuary honorably rendering services.