

Eric B. Felder

Eric Brent Felder, affectionately known as "Lil Eric" began this life, Jan. 1, 1986, St. Augustine.

Lil Eric was born to the proud parents, Eric Felder Sr. and Kim Lewis Felder.

Eric was educated through St. Johns County School District. At a young age, Eric recorded his first CD as the drummer with "Nu-Faith Gospel Singers" of St. Augustine. Eric was known to all who knew him as a mild-mannered, respectable, dependable and trustworthy person. If he said he would do something, he always followed through. Lil Eric loved his family more that words can express. He enjoyed helping everyone.

Paternal grandparents Jessie Middlebrook and the late Eddie Felder. Maternal grandparents Superintendent Jimmie and Missionary Darletha Lewis.

He leaves to cherish his memory his parents, Eric Felder and Kim Lewis Felder; sisters, Erica (Marty) Palm Coast, Kristine, St. Augustine, Darleshia "Naomi" Palm Coast, Ranesha Gains, North Carolina, Maria Butuso, Ga Beach, Florida, brother, Deonte Felder, Hastings; God-Sisters: Rahtaneik Hackney, Daytona Beach, Kaneshia Dennis, Palatka, Latisha Spell, Greenville, N.C., Teal Douglas, Palatka, God Brother: Shondre Hackney, Flagler Estates, Lataurean Hackney, Palatka; nieces, Ty'Asia, Ivyannah, and Miracle; nephews, Jamarcus, Harlen, Jamarcius, Jaccheus; loving grandparents, aunts, uncles, a host of cousins, and friends.

Funeral services for Eric Felder will be Saturday, June 18, at 11 a.m., at The Lord's Temple City of Refuge, Hastings, Pastor Thomas Cave III., Pastor Jimmie Lewis Sr. of Holy Church of Zion, Church of God in Christ, Armstrong, eulogist. Visitation will be Friday, June 17, at Holy Church of Zion Church of God in Christ, Armstrong, from 6- 7:30 p.m. Interment will be in Pattersonville Cemetery, East Palatka.

Coleman's Mortuary of Hastings in charge.