

Calvin C. Moore Sr.

Calvin C. Moore Sr., 61, Palatka, entered the sunset of life Thursday, March 27, 2008, at University Place Care & Rehabilitation Center in Gainesville following an extended illness.

He was a native of Greenville, Ala., born Tuesday, Sept. 24, 1946. He attended Greenville Training School in Greenville. He was united in holy matrimony to Larcina Maxwell. Calvin was a very loyal worker employed by the Putnam County School District as a custodian at Robert H. Jenkins Middle School for more than 13 years. His hobbies included playing cards, dominoes and billiards.

Preceding him in eternal rest were his mother, Rena Mae Kelly; brother, Johnnie Kelly; sister, Betty Kelly and brother-in-law, Troy Eubanks.

To cherish his memories are his devoted wife of 34 years, Larcina Moore, Palatka; sons, Calvin (Chelsea) Moore Jr., Craig (Juanita) Maxwell Sr.; all of Palatka; father, Eli Montgomery, Greenville, Ala.; sister, Sylvia (Al) Hunley, Lansing, Kan.; uncle, Adal Patterson, Greenville, Ala.; grandchildren, Xannairria Ware, Craig Maxwell Jr. Palatka; godson, George Jones, Palatka; sisters-in-law, Cora Hightower, Arzita Eubanks, Morris Bennett and Barbara Jean Eubanks, all of Palatka; Brenda Bryant, Jacksonville; brothers-in-law, Calvin (Rachel) Maxwell, San Mateo; George (Alice) Maxwell, Armstrong; Jimmy (Betty) Eubanks, Kenneth (Shirley) Eubanks, Palatka and dear friends, Marvin Lewis and Bruce Ledbetter and cousins, other relatives and friends.

Visitation of family and friends will be from 5-8 p.m. Friday, April 4, at the "Chapel of Serenity." Homegoing services will be at 1 p.m. Saturday, April 5, at Church of God By Faith, 1511 Washington St., Palatka, Elder Phillip Thomas, pastor, presiding. Elder T. R. Ruth is the Eulogist. Interment will be in Pattersonville Memorial Cemetery, East Palatka.

Arrangements are entrusted to the care of Karl N. Flagg Serenity Memorial Chapel.