

Eleanor M. Mosby

Eleanor M. Mosby, 94, of Palatka passed, Friday, April 15, 2011, at the Putnam Community Medical Center, following a brief illness.

She was a native of East Palatka, born to the late Elmer and Margaret Reid, Oct. 6, 1916, and educated in the Putnam County School system, Oakwood College in Huntsville, Ala., and Detroit, Mich., where she graduated as a Licensed Practical Nurse and worked in that profession for 25 years before returning back to Palatka in 1982.

She was a member of Bethany Seventh-Day Adventist Church and her ministry in music began and spanned over 75 years, teaching others to play the piano and playing in various churches in Palatka and other states until her health reasons forced her to retire in 2007. She also served as music coordinator, church clerk, head usher, and assistant Sabbath School secretary.

Preceding her in eternal rest other than her parents are her husbands, James Medlock, and Luther Mosby; sister Rachel Brooks.

Survivors are her devoted loving son, Willis Medlock, Palatka; sisters-in-law, Blanch Barnes and Verta Medlock, both of East Palatka; "like sons" James Carruth, Detroit, Mich., and Elijah Lowery, Palatka, and a host of other relatives and loving friends.

Visitation hours for family and friends will be Thursday April 21, (today) from 5-9 p.m. and Friday, April 22, from 9-10 a.m. at the D.A. Boyd and Sons Funeral Home. Funeral services will be Friday, April 22, at 11 a.m. at Bethany Seventh-Day Adventist Church, 1001 North 19th St., Palatka, with the Pastor Ricardo Daphnis, officiating and assisted by Elder Willie Ervin as the eulogist.

Interment will follow in the Pattersonville Cemetery, East Palatka.

Funeral arrangements are entrusted to the care of D.A. Boyd and Sons Funeral Home, Palatka.
