

E. Adeline Bradley

E. Adeline Bradley, 88, died Saturday, Jan. 20, 2007, after a long illness.

A native of Pomona Park, Mrs. Bradley lived in Jacksonville for many years until moving back to Pomona Park in 1972. She was a rating clerk for the Florida-Georgia Inspection and Rating Bureau. Mrs. Bradley was a graduate of Crescent City High School and had been a member of the First Baptist Church of Pomona Park for many years. She was the widow of the late Clyde W. Bradley Sr., who died in 1984.

Mrs. Bradley is survived by two sons, Clyde W. Jr. and wife, Gwen, of Atlantic Beach, and James Roger Bradley and wife, Cheryl, of Bostwick, and one daughter, Shirley White and husband, Larry, of Ocala. Nine grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren also survive.

Visitation will be from 10 a.m. until service time. Funeral services for Mrs. Bradley will be conducted at 11 a.m. Thursday, Jan. 25, in the First Baptist Church, Pomona Park with the Rev. Gary Munson, pastor, officiating. Interment will follow in the Lake Como-Pomona Park Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the First Baptist Church, Pomona Park, Building Fund.

Arrangements are under the direction of the Clayton Frank and Biggs Funeral Home of City.
