

Lloyd E. Harris

Lloyd E. "Booger" Harris, 84, died Monday, Sept. 12, 2011 at Lakewood Nursing Center following a long illness.

Born at Ruth Hammock, Flagler County, he attended school in Seville and lived most of his life in the Seville and Crescent City area. He was a veteran of WWII, serving his country with the U.S. Army, and worked as a commercial fisherman.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Marie; parents, Sampson and Thelma Harris; his brothers, Walter, Bay and Shelton Harris; and his sister, Ruth Compton.

He is survived by his sister, Myrtise Goodwin, Palatka; stepdaughters Bonnie Potts, Lake Como, Betty Scholl, Pomona Park, and Barbara Clark, San Mateo; many nieces and nephews.

Visitation for Mr. Harris will be Friday, Sept. 19 from 6-8 p.m. at the funeral home. Interment in Lake Como-Pomona Park Cemetery is set for a later date.

Arrangements are under the careful care of Clayton Frank & Biggs Funeral Home, Crescent City.